The Electrician's Union for Monterey, San Benito, and Santa Cruz County

February 17, 2021

Dear Applicant,

Local 234 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW), located in Castroville, represents approximately 350 highly skilled electrical workers in Monterey, Santa Cruz, and San Benito County. Our men and women members perform at the highest levels as Electricians in the construction industry and other fields related to electrical work. The IBEW was originally founded in 1891.

IBEW 234 is offering three (3) $1,000 scholarships to high school graduates – one each in Monterey, Santa Cruz, and San Benito County, who will graduate during the current school year and who meet all qualifying criteria.

To apply, a student must have at least one present or past union member, of any affiliation, in his or her immediate family and type an essay of approximately 500 words on one of the following topics:

- What is the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and what has it done to enhance organized labor?
- Why is the organized labor movement important in the United States today?
- How has the union movement played a key role in the life and well-being of my family member who is or was in a union?

Essays must be typed and mailed with a completed Application Form to:
